THREATENING TO QUIT LABOR MEETING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Threats to withdraw from the international labor conference were heard today from groups of labor delegates, who lined up with Samuel Gompers in his fight to have referred to a committee the question of approving the forty-eight hour week as against the eight hour day.

Gompers told the conference that it is lining up to defeat the eight hour day and endorse the 48 hour week. This, he charged, would deprive workers of the Saturday half holiday already gained in many countries.

Gompers is the only American delegate representing labor. He is being opposed by a combination of government and employer delegates, yesterday's voting showed.

This combination gave every indication of favoring the 48 hour week as opposed to the eight hour day.

It voted to approve the report of the organization committee, which, according to Gompers, practically shelved the eight hour day.

G. M. Barnes, member of the British parliament and one of the delegates representing the English government, led the fight for endorsement of the 48 hour week.

Passage to the United States of the German and Austrian delegates will be expedited by the allied supreme council at Paris, the conference was informed officially.

UNION WILL VOTE ON GOING BACK TO WORK

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 6.—What will be the termination of the strike of employees of the Long Beach and the Southwestern shipyards may be decided tonight at a meeting of the boldermakers' union here when a vote on returning to work will be taken.

Several unions are considering returning to work next Monday, and much is said to hinge on the outcome of the boldermakers' vote. The Southwestern yard has announced it will reopen Monday regardless of the action of the union and its employment department is now securing a crew for the yards. The shipbuilding plants have been closed since the coast-wide strike for an eight cents per hour increase was called the first of October.

JURYMEN IN HACKETT CASE ARE DISMISSED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 6.—After deliberating until nearly 10 o'clock last night the jury in the case of Police Sergeant Wm. Hackett, accused of agreeing to accept a bribe, reported a disagreement and was dismissed. The jury stood seven to five for conviction, it was said.

Counsel for Mine Workers Launches Legal Attack on Restraining Order Granted U. S.

ACTION PUTS GOVERNMENT ON DEFENSE IN CASE

Arguments Will Be Heard
Saturday on Injunction
That Is Sought

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—Henry Warrum, chief counsel for the Mine Workers of America, today filed a petition in federal court here asking dissolution of the restraining order which prevents union miners' leaders from furthering the strike.

The action gave the miners the initiative in the court battle. Government attorneys will be on the defensive when arguments are heard Saturday by Judge Anderson on the injunction proceedings.

The petition is in seven paragraphs and is sworn to by acting President Lewis and Secretary Green of the United Mine Workers.

The petition was presented in accordance with the court rule that such appeals must be made two days in advance of arguments. Well known legal talent will represent the miners before Judge Anderson Saturday. No ruling is expected on the petition before Saturday.

Coal Strike Situation In Deadlock; Shortage Felt

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The coal strike situation was completely deadlocked on this, the sixth day of the walkout. There were indications that the first pinch of a fuel shortage was being felt.

Demand for immediate delivery of coal poured into the railroad administration offices here from schools, factories, governors, mayors and local officials in all parts of the country.

Railroads were reported cutting down their train service to the minimum.

The government was making no apparent move toward mediation, following the announcement of the department of the justice that the injunction against the strike would not be withdrawn. Operators, replying to the government's contention that the settlement of the strike is a private question which is up to them and the miners, again made clear they are willing to negotiate provided the strike order is withdrawn.

Strikers Stand Firmly
"We cannot negotiate as long as the injunction remains valid," was the stand of Edgar Wallace, Washington representative of the strikers who went out Saturday and still are out.

The coal strike will be taken up by President Wilson's cabinet when it meets tomorrow in the regular weekly session. Tuesday is the regular day for cabinet sessions, but this week's meeting was postponed because of the absence of cabinet members.

Few miners are returning to work, according to reports to both the operators and the government. Although the operators late yesterday claimed thirty-one mines were in operation in West Virginia, the justice department failed to verify the report. The only report made public by the justice department showed that "fifty per cent more mines are running today than yesterday" in two Colorado counties.

Non-Union Tonnage Small
Meanwhile the public which the government sought to protect by the injunction is being forced to get along on the four million tons weekly which 150,000 non-union miners are getting out, plus the tonnage being doled out by the railroad administration from the reserve supply that was on hand when the strike began Saturday.

CONGRESS TO QUIT AFTER TREATY IS FINISHED

Big Reconstruction Measures Will Have to Wait Until After Recess

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Congress is preparing to adjourn without enacting any big reconstruction measures.

It has been definitely decided by senate leaders that no more domestic legislation of importance can be put through at this session. They hope to finish the peace treaty next week and go home for a fortnight vacation before the regular session opens December 1.

This will leave undisposed of the big reconstruction measures providing for peace time military policy, reorganization of the railroads and the tariff.

House leaders are still fighting for action on the railroad bills but the decision of the senate interstate commerce committee to abandon the Cummins bill until next session dashes that hope.

Representative Mondell, house majority leader, and others are known to be disappointed at the senate's failure to co-operate in passing domestic legislation.

Sharp Words Spoken

They are also known to have spoken sharp words on several occasions over this situation. When it became known that the senate would not attempt to pass permanent railroad legislation at this session, Mondell made a hurried trip over to the senate and talked to Chairman Cummins, but the situation has not been improved as a result, it is said.

The army program is in a similar situation. Bills have been introduced, hearings held, but no bill can be put through until probably after the Christmas holidays.

Tariff legislation has struck a snag. The house has passed several bills to protect the dye industry and other industries likely to be hit by European competition. These have bumped up against the stone wall of the senate, however. Senator Smoot offered a sub for these bills an "anti-dumping" measure to keep out European goods offered below cost, but Senator Penrose, whose word is close to law in tariff matters, has determined against legislation until the economic situation is more settled.

U. P. TO SEEK FREIGHT WHEN ROAD RETURNED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—Judge Robt. Lovett, head of the Union Pacific, and W. R. Scott, federal manager of the Western and Southern Pacific lines, are in Los Angeles today in connection with arrangements for the return of the railways to private ownership January 1. Lovett stated that the Union Pacific intends to resume solicitation of freight traffic as soon as the roads are returned.

RITCHIE ELECTED BY VERY NARROW MARGIN

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 6.—Albert C. Ritchie, Democratic candidate for governor, apparently was elected in Tuesday's election by the narrowest margin in the history of Maryland.

Unofficial returns today gave Ritchie a plurality of 326 over his Republican opponent, Harry W. Nice.

DIES ABOARD TRAIN.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—Bernie Grandahl, 456 East Fifty-sixth street, Portland, Oregon, died on board a Southern Pacific train here last night while enroute from San Bernardino to Portland.

Drys In Congress To Ask Extension of Liquor Ban

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Prohibitionists in congress today moved to prevent President Wilson from raising the war time liquor ban. Believing that Wilson intends to end war time prohibition as soon as the peace treaty is ratified, the aggressive dry element in the house, led by Representative Randall, California, laid its plans to checkmate him, it was learned.

Without waiting for the president to act, the drys will ask that the war time prohibition law be extended six months after the proclamation of peace. This would make war time prohibition overlap constitutional prohibition.

Randall today declared his intention of seeking this extension through an amendment to the bill to extend for six months the Lever food and fuel control act, as requested by Attorney General Palmer. The unrest throughout the country has caused many members to question advisability of lifting the war ban. More serious disorders would result if saloons were reopened, they think.

Should congress fail to extend the time ban Randall says he plans to ask the ways and means committee to recommend a prohibitive tax on sale of liquor during the wet period. The present tax on bonded spirits of $5.40 a gallon means more than $400,000,000 for the government if the ban is lifted.

Association Will Furnish Dust to Growers at Cost; Company Is Incorporated

THE California Walnut Growers Association has organized a sister corporation for the purpose of manufacturing and furnishing to association growers of walnuts the dust that is to be used in controlling the walnut codling moth, which in sections of the state have done a great deal of harm. The new corporation is named the Walnut Growers' Spray Manufacturing Co.

The directors of this company, the co-operation of the association or which is to be operated along the same lines as the supply company run in connection with the citrus exchange, are representatives of each of the associations affiliated with the California Walnut Growers Association.

The various Orange County walnut associations are represented on the board of directors of the new company, which is incorporated for $50,000. The list of directors follows:

Robert Main, Richard Egan, L. T. Webster, Prescott F. Cogswell, B. F. Porter, George A. Cook, Clyde D. Kennedy, A. J. McFadden, R. W. George, Robert H. Neely, E. de K. Leffingwell, C. C. Teague, F. E. Bagnell, Joseph D. McGrath, J. A. Smiley, Harry W. Lewis, George M. Williams, W. L. Ramsey, H. C. Sharp, J. Roupp, A. T. Currier, Ralph McNeese, C. T. Thorpe, W. T. Webber.

It is proposed to establish a plant for the manufacture of the dust, and to distribute the dust through the local associations at actual cost. It is also proposed to sell the product to independent growers at a price that will be above cost.

Recent developments in the use of dust upon walnut trees has convinced the experts who have been at work upon the problem that they have the dusting down to a much more effective basis than it was early in the summer. Extensive work in experiments has been carried on through

Rage of a Woman Scorned Slaying Cause, Is Alleged

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Nov. 6.—Declarations of District Attorney Ray Manwell that Charles Brown, wealthy young sheep raiser, was murdered as a result of the rage of "a woman scorned," were answered today by Fred J. Wilson, who said Brown fired the first shot in the quarrel that resulted in his death.

Wilson, a newspaperman of San Francisco and New York, is the husband of Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, who with Frank A. McCormick, her brother, are held in jail, although no charges are against them.

Manwell has said he is merely waiting for the formality of the coroner's inquest tonight to file murder charges against the pair. He said Mrs. Wilson incited her brother to kill Brown after Brown had jilted her and made love to her younger sister.

Attorneys for McCormick have filed habeas corpus proceedings and Judge E. P. McDaniel has issued a writ returnable at 10 a. m. tomorrow. "Brown fired the first shot in the quarrel that resulted in his death," said Wilson. "The defense will produce Wesley Potts, a carpenter, who will testify that Brown fired several shots at McCormick before the latter obtained a rifle."

Wilson said McCormick went to Brown's cabin to remonstrate with him over an alleged insult to Mrs. O. J. Howard, McCormick's younger sister.

Wilson said Brown became excited and struck McCormick in the face several times. McCormick then took Brown by the throat and choked him severely, according to Wilson.

It was then, according to Wilson, that Brown followed McCormick and began shooting.

"The motive is the age old one of the woman scorned," said District Attorney Manwell. "In this instance, it is a fury aggravated by the knowledge that a younger woman had supplanted her in the affections of a man whom she coveted, notwithstanding she had a husband of her own, and that the other woman, her younger sister, also had a husband."

EFFORT FOR PACT VOTE FAILS IN SENATE

Gore Amendment Defeated
Overwhelmingly By 16 to 67 Today

CONGRESSMEN RUSH TO SEE EXPECTED ACTION

Vice President Supports Sen.
Lodge In Balloting Plan
For Reservations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Senate today rejected the Gore amendment to the peace treaty by a vote of 16 to 67.

Senator Lodge voted with the Democrats to reject the amendment.

Immediately after the vote on the amendment was taken Senator Hitchcock unexpectedly moved for a vote on the treaty without reservations. Ayes and Noes were demanded.

Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin asked that the motion be amended so that in case it was defeated the treaty would still be before the senate.

Sensors Fall of New Mexico and Jones of Washington, however, prevented the vote being taken. Both entered objections during the course of a spirited argument.

Hitchcock's motion in the meantime had precipitated the most dramatic scene since the treaty has been under debate. Senators rushed in from the cloak rooms and the galleries filled quickly, house members rushing over to the senate side, thinking they might witness the final vote on the treaty.

Wants Treaty Reported.
With this effort to bring a vote killed, Senator Hitchcock then moved that the treaty be reported to the senate by the committee of the whole.

Senator Lodge offered the foreign relations committee reservations to the senate and said he would ask that they be voted on individually. Vice President Marshall overruled a point of order brought against this procedure and supported Lodge that reservations should be acted on first so that senators could vote on amendments if they were not satisfied with reservations adopted.

Marshall in his ruling said he was unwilling to interpret the rules so strictly as to prevent full opportunity for senators to act on reservations first. The discussion ended with a decision to consider reservations immediately.

The preamble to the resolution of ratification which requires the ratification or adoption of reservations by allied governments before the treaty can be effective, was taken up first and Senator Thomas of Colorado began with a speech in opposition to this provision. Indications are that the debate would grow more spirited and possibly be somewhat lengthy.

Hitchcock Will Call On Wilson Soon About Pact

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Senator H. H. Hitchcock, administration leader, within the next two days will confer with President Wilson on plans for final disposition of the peace treaty. Secretary Tumulty said today.

Tumulty will announce the exact time for the interview later today. Dr. Cary T. Grayson has consented to the conference.

The conference between Hitchcock and the president is regarded as another indication that the treaty is nearing a vote in the senate.

With the defeat of the La Follette amendment to strike out the labor clause of the treaty there still remains to be voted upon the Gore amendment, providing for a referendum on declarations of war.

With the Gore amendment out of the way, the senate will be free to take up the resolution of ratification with a discussion of reservations.

More Kick In Coffee Than Low Powered Beer, Claimed

ST LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 6.—Six authorities on alcohol and its effect, after tests on men and women, regular drinkers, occasional drinkers and total abstainers, have found:

Two cups of coffee have as much "kick" as twenty-one pints of one-half of one per cent beer.

A stomach full of 2.75 is only enough for one quarter of one drunk. Twenty-one and a half quarts of one half of one per cent beer at a sitting are necessary for intoxication, but the human stomach will only hold one seventeenth of that quantity. Six pints of one half of one per cent beer rapidly consumed is the same as one teaspoonful of alcohol.

These facts are contained in affidavits filed by the six authorities, including Dr. John Marshall, professor of chemistry and toxicology in the University of Pennsylvania. The affidavits were filed in federal court here today in support of the supplication of St. Louis brewers to restrain enforcement of the Volstead prohibition law.

Today's Red Cross Total Is 1397

LEADING TEAMS STRUGGLE FOR FIRST PLACE

Subscription Booths Saturday Will Be Placed on Street Corners

With a total enrollment of 1397 reported up to 9 o'clock this morning, the managers of the membership drive of the Red Cross here find themselves a bit shy of the 500 a day that some of them have been hoping for. However, information received at headquarters shows that there are a good many subscriptions that have been taken and not yet turned in, so that the actual number of memberships received has gone well over 1500 for the three days since the drive started Monday morning.

"We are anxious to have the canvassers cover their territories as quickly as possible," said Mrs. Susie Rutherford, chairman of the drive for Santa Ana chapter, this morning.

"Under plans adopted by Mrs. J. N. Anderson, the city chairman, the canvassers may report to their team captains at any time, and the team captains report to Mrs. Anderson. Some of the canvassers have made no reports though they have gone over a part of their districts."

Diamond district is within three of reaching the quota expected of it by Mrs. Rutherford. Mrs. Devinney, who is making the canvass in Diamond district, turned in twenty-two memberships.

"I'll get three more," declared she.

Friendly Rivalry.

A friendly rivalry for first places has developed among the five districts in Santa Ana. The team captains are all hoping to make the best showing.

Today the southeast section, in which Miss Lula Minter and Mrs. J. P. Hatzfeld are captains, is leader today. That district has turned in 412 memberships of the 1397 reported. Close to this district, which has led from the first day, is the business district, of which Attorney C. D. Swanner is captain. The business district has reported 367 names. Swanner feels certain that when the final count is made, the business district will lead all the rest.

The northeast district, in which Mrs. J. H. Rankin and Miss Sarah Finley are captains, holds a good third place.

Anyone walking along the streets of Santa Ana today finds many 100 per cent posters in windows of business houses. One of those banners means that every person employed

Officers Nab Two, Allege Whiskey Is Sold at $12 Quart

Having received alleged information that J. C. Lathrop and Sam Borell, of Santa Ana, were about to consummate the sale of certain liquors at an old house on Lemon street, Orange, three blocks south of Chapman avenue, Sheriff C. E. Jackson, City Marshal H. J. Warner of Orange and Nightwatchman Pulley, also of Orange, went to the place, saw the alleged sale of one quart of whiskey, for $12.50, and two quarts of Vermouth, at $6.00 per quart, and today Lathrop and Borell were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Samuel Armor of Orange, charged with the illicit sale of liquor.

EX-HEAD OF ANAHEIM CEMETERY IS LAUDED

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Anaheim Cemetery Association, at Anaheim, resolutions were passed expressing the appreciation of the board for the invaluable services given by A. G. Langenberger in behalf of the welfare of the cemetery. It was announced today.

Langenberger recently moved to San Francisco, thus necessitating his resignation as president of the board of directors. Being the son of one of the early pioneers, he took a deep interest in the cemetery and was one of the first to start the movement toward getting perpetual care. Perpetual care has not yet been secured, but now that the war is over the directors are planning to start the movement again and feel that more interest will be taken in it.

workers approximated about one-third of the nation's normal output. There is still hope at present of increasing the output of non-union mines, according to Kentucky operators here to confer with Fuel Administrator Garfield, who now has authority to fix prices of both bituminous and anthracite coal as a result of action by President Wilson.

The senate labor committee, which has been investigating the steel strike, is ready to make its report and take up investigation of the coal strike, Chairman Kenyon said today. The coal probe will not be started until after the injunction hearing Saturday at Indianapolis.

Claims Coal For 37 Days But Two Trains Cancelled

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Despite the announcement of L. S. Carroll, purchasing agent for northwestern railroads, that his systems are supplied with coal for thirty-seven days, the Northwestern line today cancelled two trains. Other roads were said to be considering this method of conservation.

The regional coal committee here today revised its figures as to Chicago's coal reserve. There will be no pinching for at least thirty days, it said.

FORMER ARMY CAPTAIN DIES BY OWN BULLET

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 6.—Louis J. Gomes, 34, died here today from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head. Gomes, who formerly was a captain in the regular army, was wounded in France, and it is believed that suffering from these wounds caused despondency.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Nov. 6.—Louis J. Gomes, who died in Springfield, Ill., today, formerly was employed as a mechanic in the mechanical department in the Stanford University.

SETTLEMENT OF RUSS SITUATION EXPECTED

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Possible settlement of the Russian situation, which reached a climax during debate in the house of commons late yesterday was forecast today.

Some leaders saw in the statement of Lieut. Colonel Cecil Malone that he believed "a possible satisfactory peace, with ending of the horrible era of death and bloodshed in Russia," would result from proposals made to him by Russian soviet leaders.

Malone recently returned from an unofficial mission to Russia. He brought back notes from the soviet government similar to those obtained by William Bullitt, investigator of the American peace mission. Confidence that agreements made by bolshevik officials with him would make possible peace "with all defecto governments to retain control of territory they now occupy, subject to removal of the blockade against Russia and unhindered transport to soviet territory" was expressed by Malone.

SOUGHT TO KILL SELF, NOW ASKING FOR WIFE

MOSCOW, Idaho, Nov. 6.—H. J. Mileham, who tried to end his life last Friday because, he said, his wife, known as Esther Digles, refused to come to Moscow to live with him, is improving.

Doctors say he has a fair chance to live.

Mileham continues to ask for his wife and begs his friends to appeal to her in his behalf in an effort to have her join him. The girl, who, following Mileham's attempted suicide, disclaimed any acquaintance with him, is a student at the University of California.

A letter arrived here yesterday for Mileham from the girl, according to Mileham's physician, but the latter decided it would be unwise to let the man have it, fearing it might contain unpleasant news.

GRAND OFFICER GUEST K. OF P. LODGE

Local Pythians and Friends Greet Grand Chancellor Guerin Last Evening

The lodge member who puts nothing into his lodge is the man who gets nothing out of it, is the declaration of C. W. Guerin, of Pomona, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, made last night in an address at Elks' lodge room on the occasion of a reception to him by the local lodge.

There was a fair attendance of members and friends of the order, with practically all the lodges of the county represented and members present from lodges outside the county. Anaheim uniform rank was present twenty strong.

The program was a pleasing one, consisting of addresses by the grand chancellor and Rev. J. A. Stevenson of this city, vocal selections by A. J. Garraway, accompanied on the piano by Miss Ruth Armstrong, a recitation by C. H. Kittredge of San Diego, and a most artistic interpretation of "The Music Master" by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Rasmus. The latter was the closing feature of the program and the artists gave demonstration of superior dramatic talent.

Stating that there are 7000 K. P. lodges, with a membership of three-quarters of a million in the United States, Grand Chancellor Guerin spoke of the high objects of the order and urged activity in the securing of new members by the Santa Ana lodge.

He declared that there is no conflict between the church and lodges, and that the principles of the K. P. life are the same pure and wholesome life as the church if the members live up to the teachings of their order. Referring to the able address on Friendship by Rev. Stevenson, who preceded the grand chancellor, he stated that friendship was one of the great principles upon which the Pythian order was founded.

Enthusiasts Help

"We may go into any community and into any lodge and we will find men who are complaining, and always we find that the men complaining are those who put nothing into the lodge," said the grand chancellor. "On the other hand, we find men who attend lodge regularly, who are enthusiastic, and when asked how things are going always reply, 'fine'." These are the men who are putting something into the lodge, who are working for it and who find benefits and pleasure in its associations. The man who puts nothing into his lodge is the man who gets nothing out of it.

Rev. J. A. Stevenson captivated the audience in a brief but forcible presentation of the idea and value of friendship.

"Anyone who will be half-way decent will have friends, and anyone who is all square will have all the friends he needs or wants," declared the popular divine. "Every man ought to cultivate the friendships of life. Worthy friendship brings out the best there is in you—and there are lots of people in this world who need it."

"There are people in whose presence your action will be different, in whose presence your language will be different. It is friendship and respect that causes this change. Friendship develops manhood, quality, in a man. Friendship is fine because it sees value in you. The friend sees something in you that is not apparent to others."

Always Make Friends

"Don't miss a chance to make a friend. Go on and on making friends whenever and wherever you can. You will need them and they will be with you in the time of need. No matter where you go, be a good fellow and play the friend; help a man when you can; do something for the other fellow that is worth while—that will win his friendship and respect. It will come back to you in some way, and when you least expect it."

He illustrated the value of being thoughtful and offering assistance to the other fellow by relating a personal experience in San Diego. In this instance he was driving into San Diego when he saw a man who had missed a car. The man had a dinner engagement uptown. Rev. Stevenson drove the man to the point and got him there in time for his engagement. He did not ask the man's name. Didn't know who he was, in less than three days circumstances arose where that stranger proved a true friend and rendered a service to Rev. Stevenson that was of great value to him.

Before and after the program in the hall the grand chancellor was greeted by a large number of Pythians and their friends.

MERCHANTS WILL CLOSE HOUSES TUESDAY

Sentiment of Business Men Is Decidedly In Favor of Observing Holiday

In a spirit of patriotic regard for the boys who were facing German bullets a year ago and those who were ready to face them, and in appreciation of the ceasing of hostilities by the signing of the armistice, business men of Santa Ana will close their places on Tuesday next and devote the day to rejoicing in celebration of the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice.

Secretary Metzgar of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association made a hurried canvass of the business district this forenoon and found the sentiment of a majority of those interviewed in favor of closing and making the day a complete holiday. As a result the directors of the association this afternoon passed resolutions urging that every member of the organization close all day.

There are many boys back in Santa Ana and Orange county today who might not have been here had the war continued many days longer, and there are thousands and thousands of such men throughout the world who today have taken up or are gradually taking up former pursuits who would not be doing so but for the eventful day of Nov. 11, 1918. A spirit of rejoicing that the carnage overseas was terminated at that time prevails everywhere, and sentiment is decidedly in favor of observing the day as a holiday.

Plans for the celebration to be held at Birch Park Tuesday morning are progressing under the direction of R. L. Bisby, and the program will be of a character that will attest the sincerity of the people of this community in their rejoicing.

DANES FEAR STRIKES MAY STOP OIL CAKE

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 6.—Fear was expressed by officials of the Danish food administration today that the strikes in the United States might prevent delivery of 60,000 tons of oil cake purchased there. The cake is to be delivered in December and January.

Failure to obtain prompt delivery of the cake would result disastrously for the Danish farming industry, officials said.

MOTORISTS FROM WESTMINSTER HIT SNOWMr. and Mrs. J. J. Stoves Have Unpleasant Experience
In WyomingWESTMINSTER, Nov. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stoves, who are on their way home after a summer spent visiting relatives and old friends in Iowa, Missouri, and other states, have been experiencing the coldest weather they have known since leaving Missouri twenty-eight years ago. They went by machine over the Santa Fe Trail and are returning by the Lincoln
Highway. While coming through Wyoming they encountered a snowstorm and made good use of all the extra clothes they could get on. Mrs.
Stoves had on two dresses, an apron,
two coats and two quilts, while Mr.
Stoves put on an extra shirt, overalls and overcoat. After a ride of twenty miles in the snow and a two-hour stop, the next twenty miles was made in sunshine.The ice froze in their canteen and along the roadside. They planned to visit Mrs. Stoves' brother in Nebraska but gave it up after learning the condition of the roads. They were told the roads would have been worse on account of rains had they come earlier.They were at Cheyenne on Tuesday of last week and a card received by their daughter, Miss Opal Stoves, this week Monday and written October 30, stated they were on Sherman Hill, 8247 feet high, the highest point of the Divide.At one place in Wyoming they were stuck in the snow and obliged to dig out with a flying pan in lieu of a shovel. They purchased a shovel at the first opportunity, but as the weather had grown warmer, will keep it as a souvenir of their trip. They are expected home by the last of this week or the first of next.A truck from Huntington Beach belonging to A. W. Morehouse of that place, ran into the ditch near Andrew Mifflin's place, Tuesday afternoon.
Mr. Morehouse was returning from Santa Ana with a ton of bran and grain when he got out on the running board to examine a tire, leaving the wheel in the hands of his mother. She was not able to hold the truck from running into the ditch. The occupants, including a man in the back, were badly shaken up but all were able to get out. The windshield was broken, but the truck went home on its own power after being pulled out by another truck which was telephoned for.
Mr. Morehouse remained until help came while the others were taken home by a passing machine.A number of friends helped little Howard Anderson celebrate his fifth birthday on Thursday afternoon. His birthday came on October 24th, but on account of rain the party was postponed. Pink and white ice cream with a variety of cookies were served the guests, the decorations also being in pink and white. Those present beside the family were Mr. and Mrs. W.
B. McCoy, Helen, Bryce and Wallace
McCoy, Maxine Mooman, Miss Opal
Stoves, Mrs. Phil McClintock, James McClintock and Rufus Edwards.Mr. and Mrs. Jewett Dunham, who niece, Miss Opal Stoves, returning the same day to their home in Long Beach.While George Mesuda, a Japanese who lives on the Stanton road, stopped at one of the stores Thursday afternoon, his team ran away and made too short a turn north at the school house, tipping over the first of the empty beet wagons which fell on the wheel horses, bruising them considerably.

This same team became frightened at the train two or three weeks ago and ran over the Japanese, who sustained a number of bruises. He had un-hitched them from the wagon a short time before or he might have been more seriously hurt.Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Waters and

SELLING IDEAS

Sometimes one hears pessimistic talk about the inevitable clash between ideals and business. A man who is president of a great paint and varnish company, and has been working with paint and varnish through fifty successful years, believes quite the contrary. In an interview given the American Magazine he says that he always instructs his salesmen that they are to sell ideas first, and to remember that paints and varnishes are merely the instruments of ideas and ideals.

"Because paint or varnish improves the appearance of a home, or an office, or a building, they must sell their prospective customer the idea that paint means beauty. Because cleanliness is sanitary, they must sell the idea that paint means health; because it preserves surfaces, they must sell the idea that paint means economy. Cheerfulness, brightness, color—these make a pleasing environment; therefore, paint may actually mean added happiness. People are attracted to a store or a theater, or even to a church, if it is well painted and artistically decorated; and for that reason paint means prosperity.

"If the ideal around which a business is being built up is one of mere selfish money-grabbing, the ideas used in manufacturing and selling will surely bow to this ideal. You will find that business honeycombed with ideas of cheap labor, cheap production, swollen profits—all of them ideas for furthering selfish gain.

"On the other hand, if the central ideals are faith, happiness and service, the ideas permeating that business must and inevitably will be those of honesty, integrity, confidence, quality, a contented and loyal organization and customers who are well served and satisfied."

These are not the vagaries of a theorist. The man who utters them is one of the country's successful men, and his business carries out his ideas.

It looks as if people might begin to learn, after awhile, that ideals are not incompatible with making a comfortable living. And when capital and labor have learned that the one great principle upon which to base their efforts should be the service of the public weal, when all the warring parts begin to realize that they are, after all, only parts of the same whole, and that the good of one is the good of all, most of the difficulties of the labor world will solve themselves.

LABOR'S WANTS

Why is there a labor problem? "Because," says Meyer Bloomfield, a Boston labor authority, "employers fail to understand what labor wants." If they understood, they might be able to satisfy their men, and then the problem would vanish.

It is not so much a question of what labor "requires," says Mr. Bloomfield, but what it "wants." What the workman really needs may not be the same as what he thinks he needs, but the latter is what he is interested in, and what his employer must understand if the two are to get along amicably.

It is hard for either to get the other's feelings and viewpoint. Mr. Bloomfield emphasizes, just as John D. Rockefeller, Jr., recently did, the gulf usually existing between the business executive and the mass of his workmen. He cannot, or does not, get into direct touch with them. He does not learn their wants and thoughts at first hand. They come to him only through his representatives, his subordinates, the intermediate bosses. Many of these "little bosses" lack intelligence or sympathy, and so fail to interpret the sentiment of the men under them.

What the workman seems to want more than anything else, says this authority—and many others agree with him—is "a different status in industry." This seems to mean particularly that he wants to get closer to his employer, to become less of a cogwheel in the industrial system and more of a human being, to feel himself a part of a living institution, to feel that he is playing a part worth while, so that he can take a personal interest in his work, and respect himself and be respected.

All this is very difficult, as industries are conducted nowadays. Mr. Rockefeller has suggested that in so far as it can be accomplished, it involves first of all the organization of the workmen and continual intercourse between them and their employers through their chosen representatives.

In any event, it is evident that the big thing in industrial relations is to get acquainted. Whatever will enable employers and employees to get closer together as human beings will help eliminate ill-feeling on both sides and harmonize jangling opinions.

CHINA'S ARMY

Demobilizing a big army is always a problem, but in China it is more complicated than usual. The Chinese government wants to disband its army of 800,000 men, and can't do it, because it has no money for the purpose. Worse still, it has no money for the soldiers' back pay—and they must be paid when they are discharged. So, in lieu of any other solution, the government is obliged to keep those 800,000 men under arms, at the expense of the nation, indefinitely.

There seems to be nothing much for the soldiers to do. There is no fighting, and they cannot undertake any public work of importance, though railroads and irrigation projects are needed, because there is no money for tools and materials. So that army is eating its head off and continuing to run up its overdue pay at the rate of $8.00 to $12.00 a month per man.

Surely somebody ought to lend China enough money to get that army off her hands.

The Light of Memory

—Ft. Wayne (Ind.) News—

Let your memory, a tender Ruth, go gleaming in the fields of long ago. And still not so long ago either—say about ten years ago. The particular field to which we shall direct her attention is one with a stump in it and upon the stump a democratic campaign orator addressing a group of his enlightened fellow citizens. Let Ruth come along and repeat for us his soulful plea:

"And now, my fellow citizens, I want to direct your attention to the item of sugar. I have showed you how the tariff on coffee makes you pay twenty cents a pound on what you should get for ten, and now I tell you how the poor man's breakfast cup is still further taxed by the damnable and outrageous tax on sugar. There is a tariff on sugar, my fellow citizens, and you are today paying six cents a pound for a necessity of life that shouldn't be costing you over four cents. And I tell you, you men with the calloused hands and honest, grimy faces, that when the glorious democratic party comes into power it will sweep this iniquitous tariff tax on sugar away and you will have all you want pretty nearly for the asking. The republican party, my friends, is the party of the plutocrats and the oppressors of labor, and just so long as it remains in power you will go right on paying twenty cents for coffee and six cents for sugar—paying a tax that enriches the wealthy and robs you. The rich are getting richer and the poor are getting poorer and it's all because of the robber tariff. It robs you and it robs I. But as gawdumity sits on his throne we are going to rout the republicans out and make the necessities of life cheap for the pee-pul!"

How vividly it all comes back to mind and how some of us remember in a shame-faced sort of fashion now we cheered this sorry sentiment and really believed it. But deary me, how times have changed and how we have changed with them!

Going Flat

Stockton Record

The best antidote for unrest, discontent, mental depression and physical debility, is plain, unadorned work—work done cheerfully and done with useful purpose and with a conscience that demands effective, proficient effort, says the Nevada City Union.

Nothing truer could be said, but every one of the symptoms mentioned is in evidence when a man or woman needs rest, change; needs to kick over the traces and run away, if only for a day or two. The trouble is the people who work make a fetish of it, first from necessity, finally from habit. They are just as far off as the kind, the indolent who are miserable because their blood doesn't circulate. It is nearly as bad for the person concerned to get to thinking that his work can't go on without him and that he can't be spared for the other to think that the world owes him a living. The first is a useful man who has got into a rut and is dominated by his job. His nerves are shrinking together like a punctured tire and when they go flat he is in a nervous collapse, worried about nothing, depressed, melancholy, miserable. He has to be kicked out to get him to take the change he needs.

The world should worry about the lazy who are miserable! It is the useful man or woman going flat for want of pumping up or patching who should concern us.

Better English

Pasadena Star-News

This is a week in which to watch one's tongue and pen. It is a period dedicated to the promotion of "Better English." The average person is as reckless with the mother tongue as with health. English is a beautiful tongue, fascinating in its possibilities, if used with refined precision. It is a language evolved from many tongues. It may be likened to the honeycomb filled with honey, which represents sweets gathered from many flowers in many fields.

There are many persons of fair education who habitually are slovenly of speech. It is a regrettable habit. One observes how pleasing is the conversation of the person who speaks with due regard to the laws of pronunciation, grammatical construction and discriminating choice of words and phrases, one is impressed with the desirableness of being correct and precise in speech.

When a Feller Needs a Friend

Your Heart, Your Dollar

"All you need is a heart and a dollar." It can be the same old heart that it was last year and the year before that, but it must be another dollar.

The Red Cross annual membership drive is on, and in spite of high prices and decreased production, it asks no more of anyone than it did before.

There is little need to plead the cause of this great society. It is known by its works.

It may be that there is lacking some of the romantic appeal which stirred our hearts during the war, but the Red Cross does no less great a work in peace. Right now it is conducting relief operations in seventeen European countries, and preparing for relief and emergency work on a tremendous scale in this country.

Not to give the dollar would be the difficult thing, and every subscriber as he buys his membership will only wish that at least he were twins.

ONE DAY AT A TIME

One day at a time! That's all it can be;
No faster than that is the hardest fate;
And days have their limits, however we Begin them too early and stretch them too late.

One day at a time!
It's a wholesome rhyme!
A good one to live by,
A day at a time.

One day at a time! Every heart that aches
Knowing only too well how long they seem;
But it's never today which the spirit breaks—
It's the darkened future without a gleam.

One day at a time! When joy is at height,
Such joy as the heart can never forget,
And pulses are throbbing with wild delight,
How hard to remember that suns must set.
One day at a time! But a single day.

Whatever its load, whatever its length;
Whatever its load, whatever its length;
And there's a bit of precious Scripture to say
That according to each shall be our strength.

One day at a time! 'Tis the whole of life;
All sorrow, all joy are measured therein.
The bound of our purpose, our noblest strife,
The one only countersign sure to win.

One day at a time!
It's a wholesome rhyme!
A good one to live by,
A day at a time.

—Helen Hunt Jackson.

"Better Speech Week, now being observed in our schools, is a fine thing for the young people. But "Watch Your Speech" is a slogan that older people, as well as school boys and girls, might adopt with pleasure and profit. For carelessness and bad habits of speech, more than ignorance and lack of education, are responsible for the incorrect use of the English language, and parents and older sisters and brothers should bear in mind that the habits of speech of the child are formed in the home more than in the school room.

To test my theory that incorrect language is more of a habit than the result of ignorance, I subjected a twelve-year-old boy to the test of the list of incorrect phrases and sentences printed in the Register the other day; and although he constantly uses many of the incorrect sentences and phrases given in the list, I found that he knew the correct form in every instance except two. He did not know what was the matter with "I am very pleased to meet you" or what was wrong with "He might have done it." And I suspect that he had plenty of company, among both old and young, in his two failures.

It is not possible to consider carefully and comprehensively the subject of better speech without including writing.

No, writing and speaking are not one and the same thing. Many can write fairly well who speak very incorrectly, or with little or no fluency. And by the same token, many good conversationalists, even many good public speakers, write very poorly.

One who can write good English can speak it; but many do not; they are simply careless, have fallen into bad habits of speech. For them it is simply a matter of "Watch Your Speech." It is not so with one who can speak good English but cannot write it. Writing is more technical than speaking. One cannot write good English without knowing how to speak it, but one can speak good English without knowing how to write it. Being able to speak good English without knowing how to write it is something like playing the piano "by ear" and not being able to read music.

There is another analogy between music and language—of course music is language,—and that is that some people are incapable of learning or being taught to write or speak well, just as some people cannot learn or be taught music.

I think it is also true of language, as of music, that it is more often learned than taught. And that, of course, is true of all educational processes—that learning is the greater part.

You know that epigram, to the effect that all that is required to make a great university is to have a Johns Hopkins on one end of a log and a James A. Garfield—or was it Lincoln?—on the other; meaning, of course, "hat to bring together a teacher who knows how to teach, and has a passion for his work, and a pupil with capacity and desire for learning, is a sort of mental and spiritual wedlock (from which a great university is born. However, a Lincoln or a Garfield, a John Hays or a Theodore Roosevelt, could sit on the end of a log in a wilderness and learn without the aid of a Johns Hopkins, but Johns Hopkins could not teach without a pupil who would want to learn and would try to learn. Whether we would learn English or music or mathematics, we must depend more upon ourselves than upon our teachers.

Clarity, simplicity, brevity—this trinity, is the soul of good speaking and good writing.

But while all these are good qualities of speaking and writing, it would be far short of the best instruction on this subject to attach too much importance to them, or to leave them unqualified.

Good speaking and good writing should be characterized by all these qualities, but the speaking or writing that is merely clear and simple and brief leaves much to be desired. It will lack color and warmth and flavor. It will not touch the imagination. It will not paint a picture, or warm the heart, or give inspiration or vision. It will carry nothing of hope or faith. It will be lifeless.

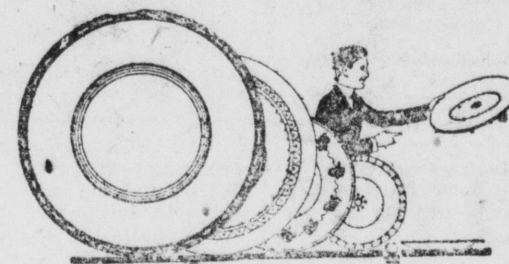

Perhaps the finest example of clarity, simplicity, and brevity of speech or writing in the English language, coupled with the ornate and the spiritual, is the thirteenth chapter of Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians. The next finest example is Lincoln's Gettysburg address. For sheer beauty of imagery and an enrapturing expression of sublime faith, I know of nothing to compare with Tennyson's Crossing the Bar.

If young people would acquire a fine style in speaking and writing, they should read the Bible and Lincoln's speeches; read Dickens and McCauley and Carlyle and Leigh Hunt, and when they are older read Blackstone; read Goldsmith and Longfellow, Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson. Constant reading of this kind cannot fail to leave its impress of force and beauty upon our own speaking and writing.

Just now, perhaps, many of our young people think of wealth in terms of money and the things money will

"SYRUP OF FIGS" IS LAXATIVE FOR CHILD

Look at Tongue! Remove Poisons From Stomach, Liver and Bowels

Much to be desired and seldom possessed is the ability to write and speak good English. Even in a mere material sense, I can think of no single accomplishment that, in our social system, is of greater value, either to the individual or the community.

The granite quarries at Madera, closed by a strike, are once more in full swing.

Yuba Tractors give little trouble.

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear. Mother! You must say "California."—Adv.

Her Seventy-Eighth Birthday

Enjoying life to the fullest, although she has reached the seventy-eighth milestone of her long and useful life, Mrs. Mina V. Butcher was the "victim" last evening at a delightful surprise birthday party, cleverly planned and carried out by her daughter, Mrs. Cora B. Cavins.

Decorations of cosmos and zinnias in tall vases were artistically used to brighten the cheery home and Mrs. Butcher was showered with much-appreciated gifts. Music and conversation were diversions of the pleasant evening.

Late in the evening, delectable refreshments, including a lovely birthday cake, were served and Mrs. Butcher received many good wishes for more such happy anniversaries. During her thirteen years' residence here, she has made hosts of friends, who also extend their congratulations.

Those participating last evening besides the honoree and her daughter, were Dr. and Mrs. Bert Boyd, Miss Durham, Mrs. Frank Smith of Los Angeles; Mrs. Ernest Christman of Maricopa; Dr. and Mrs. Mark Menges; Mrs. G. P. Hugel, Dr. John Menges; Mr. and Mrs. T. ## Social Gathering at Church

A company of about two hundred members of the First Christian church gathered last evening in the community house at the invitation of the Ladies' Aid Society for a social evening.

Mrs. C. E. Phillips had prepared the rooms for the occasion with decorations of ferns and chrysanthemums and Mrs. F. T. Porter had the program in charge. A period of community singing was enjoyed, accompanied by the Sunday School orchestra. The guests were then divided according to their native states and Missouri was found to be in the lead with twenty-one representatives present.

Heads of the departments of the church gave an outline of plans for the coming year, which will mean renewed activity for all church work.

Instrumental and vocal musical numbers were given by Misses Lizette Phillips and Miss Ruth Lucas. A playlet entitled "A Brief Courtship," was pantomimed by Mrs. C. L. Johnson, Mrs. Maud Lash and Mrs. L. W. Crasher. The pastor, Rev. F. T. Porter, gave a talk on the different lines of work in the Santa Ana church.

Then this delightful evening was closed with a birthday party, the company being grouped in accordance with the month of their birth. At this time refreshments of popcorn, nuts and apples were served by Mrs. W. A. Lowman and a corps of assistants from the Philathea class.

Pretty Afternoon Party

Mrs. Clarence Skiles and Miss Margaret Ore were hostesses yesterday at their home, at a pleasantly informal afternoon party for Miss Irma Reinhaus.

While the guests were socially chatting together, the hostesses gave each one a tea towel to hem and embroider, or mark in some manner. Later these were collected and presented to Miss Reinhaus in a miniature dish pan.

Lovely lavender pink chrysanthemums adorned the living room, where the guests assembled and at the refreshment hour they were invited into the dining room, where the handsome flowers were again in evidence. The table, at which the guests found tiny kewpies marking their places for the two-course supper, was centered by a larger kewpie, carrying a shower bouquet. Other appointments on the table were in pink. Ices were kewpies tied with pink ribbon.

Following the pleasant progression of the supper, the guests were given "nuts to crack," which opened, were found to conceal a revealing fortune.

Guests present were Mmes. Max Reinhaus, W. L. Bullard, George S. Smith, E. Brannon, Harry Warner, Marshall Northcross, Misses Teresa Pauline, Irma and Helen Reinhaus, Lida Crookshank, Doris Robbins and the hostesses, Mrs. Skiles and Miss Ore.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Clear your congested head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes like, contains no quinine—Insist upon Pape's! Adv.

of Mrs. John McAuley on Orange avenue. The parlors were artistically decorated with chrysanthemums.

A very large attendance was present to enjoy the splendid program given. The society voted to buy a $50 "407" bond that is being issued by the general missionary society. The devotional service was led by Mrs. C. F. Millen.

The subject for the afternoon was "Egypt—Present." The society was exceptionally fortunate as it was the privilege of the members present to have with them Rev. Gilmore of the Egyptian Missionary, who gave the society a very interesting talk on the work. Rev. Gilmore has recently come from the field where his work was mostly with the school at Alexandria. Rev. Gilmore answered a number of questions to enlighten the ladies on the work in that field.

At the close of the program, a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed, during which the committee served wafers, spaghetti and coffee.

METHODISTS ARE PLANNING FOR CHURCH NIGHT

A Number of Activities Are to Be Concentrated Into One Evening

The Methodists are planning to institute what is to be designated as a church night. It is planned to combine a number of other activities, some of them to be new activities, of the church with the regular mid-week prayer meeting.

The first of these gatherings will be held by the First Methodist Church Thursday evening of next week. It is planned to make church night an evening when the young people will gather for a fellowship meal at 6:15, and after the meal take up a class study of the Bible in relation to leadership and the program of the kingdom. Then at 7:30 the regular mid-week service will be held for the entire church.

At the service the pastor will take up a study of the book of Revelation. He believes it is a book of "Heart Problems and World Issues," and that an intensive study of the book will bring a new passion to life and help in the solution of some of the problems, both individual and social. The study will probably cover eight or ten weeks, and the members are anticipating a good hour of spiritual fellowship each week in its study.

ORANGE TEAM IS TWO OFFENSIVES SHY ON PEP IN PRACTICE

Make Poor Showing on Eve of Big Battle Tomorrow

ORANGE Nov. 6.—Hard tackling practice was the order of procedure for the high school football squad at its last practice and a drill in the whirling dodge and stiff arm was also a feature of the work out. The team dodged through work and seemed to lack the drive which was shown in their preparation for the Fullerton game of last week. Whittier has a fast, clever team, as shown by their defeat of Santa Ana two weeks ago, and unless the locals show a change of form tomorrow's game will find them holding up the small end of the score.

All of the regulars were on the field with the exception of Clifford Davy, who is still out with a sore hip received in Saturday's game, and Stanfield, who has been sick.

Campbell is sub full this week and Davy will be given a week to get back in shape. All in all the work out was not encouraging. Walsworth has gone back to his high hitting in the line and the whole team showed a lack of pep and drive. Over-confidence seems to be the trouble and unless it can be eradicated the team gotten back into a fighting organization the coach will find a repetition of the disappointing Santa Ana game of two weeks ago which the locals expected to win by a wide margin.

The coach has completed arrangements with the Whittier coach to play the schedule league game on Friday afternoon owing to the South Pasadena game scheduled here Tuesday the 11th. The Whittier game will be called at 3:30, Friday afternoon. The school band, led by Mr. Hohenshel, will assist the rooters in keeping up the side line end of the game. The Orange rooters who showed up the Fullerton fans last Saturday will be back on the job and will be led by Miss Lois Grout and Charles Parker.

MOTHER-COLONY TEAM TO MEET FULLERTON

Tomorrow the Anaheim Union high school eleven will play the Fullerton second team on the Anaheim grounds. This will be the fourth scheduled game of the season. Anaheim will play the last league game at Santa Ana on Friday, November 14, with the second team of the local high school.

On Tuesday of this week the Anaheim team beat the Fullerton team in a practice game, carrying the pigskin over the Fullerton goal twice, but failing to kick goal in either instance, leaving the score 12-0. This indicates that Anaheim should win easily tomorrow.

ROW OVER OFFICIALS FOR CALIFORNIA GAME

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—An argument over officials has arisen to add to the merriment of the preliminaries to the U. S. C.—University of California football game here Saturday.

Coach Smith of Berkeley has wired Graduate Manager Bruce of U. S. C. objecting to the appointment of Keimholz or Jerry Abbott as referee and suggesting either Braddock, a northern California man, or Badenoch of Inglewood, to which suggestion U. S. C. is not anxious to accede. The matter remains undecided.

STOPS MEDICINE—HEALTH RECOVERED BY INTERNAL BATHS

Mr. A. Czarniecki, 657 Montgomery st., San Francisco, Cal., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows: "I must admit that the use of the 'J. B. L. Cascade' has cured my chronic constipation from which I suffered. Since May 12, 1919, I have never even tasted any kind of patent medicine or purgative. My health is excellent in every respect."

Over a half a million bright, keen, intelligent Americans have found that Internal Bathing is more essential to their health than external baths.

Have found that used occasionally at night they feel like different people the next morning. No more of that nervous, tired, nervous feeling, but having by nature's own cleanser—antiseptic warm water—removed all the poisonous waste from the lower intestine, they awake thoroughly refreshed by normal sleep, with all their functions acting properly, clear headed, happy and confident, eager and capable for the duties of the day.

Why not learn more about this rapidly growing and natural practice? The "J. B. L. Cascade" is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. ### Heavy Artillery Trained on Ban Johnson and Garry Hermann

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Guns are booming now in two offensives of the major league war.

The American League board of directors centered their fire again on Ban Johnson yesterday by overruling the protest of Frank Navin and declaring the Yankees official winners of third place in the American League race. Resolutions signed by Col. Jacob Ruppert, Charles Comiskey and Harry Frazee demanded that the national commission turn over the New York team's share of the world's series money.

In another sector the guns were turned on Garry Hermann. The joint committee appointed to name a successor to Hermann as chairman of the national commission, met and agreed on a new chairman, whom they declined to name publicly.

Following a request from William F. Baker, William Veeck and Colonel Ruppert, constituting the committee, were directed to John Heydler, National League president, for an early meeting to ratify the choice.

Heydler telephoned Johnson in Chicago and was told by the American League president that he would not attend a meeting with any committee of which Ruppert was a member.

By this stand Johnson blocks the efforts to oust his ally, Hermann, and he brings up an issue which may force the National League powers to take up arms against him with the trio of enemies in his own league.

If Johnson persists in his refusal to meet with a committee not of his own selection the National League powers may decide to deal with the American League board of directors and act over Ban's head.

Another airing of the American League squabble in court seems probable if the national commission does not turn over the Yankee's third place winnings. Colonel Ruppert, president of the New York club, has announced that he will institute mandamus proceedings to force the payment if the commission does not comply with the request of the directors.

$75,000 FOR DEMPSEY FIGHT WITH BRENNAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—While Joe Beckett, the English champion, was busy sending denials across the pond that he was to meet Jack Dempsey in New Orleans on St. Patrick's Day, the champion was hearing the jingle of big coin for another bout. Johnny Abrams, New Orleans promoter, is quoted as offering Dempsey $75,000 for a bout with Knockout Bill Brennan to be fought before the proposed mill with the Britisher. Another proviso hung the bout on a Brennan victory in his coming fight with Tom McMahon.

King of Roumania Thanks American People.

Bucharest, Roumania,
July 1919

I am eager to thank the American people for the generous way in which Roumania has been aided by its Red Cross.

The names of the American Red Cross will forever be fixed in my country. With increasing energy it has worked amongst the suffering, showing a spirit of abnegation and devotion of which I cannot too highly speak.

Wherever need was greatest there was the American Red Cross to be found, it penetrated into the most forsaken corners, surrounding the sick, clothing the naked, feeding the hungry, bringing hope and comfort to Roumanians in distress.

I would also offer my special thanks to all the members of the mission, who under the intelligent guidance of Colonel Anderson did wonders among the poor.

Although the war was over they did not hurry back to their homes, nor to their own interests, having obtained new great was the misery everywhere had brought upon us, they remained on far beyond their term originally fixed so as not to abandon the work they had begun.

Unforgettable will remain the memory of the American Red Cross.

TO DONATE PARK SITE IS PLAN AT ANAHEIM

J. P. Hahew Urges That 75 Citizens Subscribe $1000 Each For Project

When the proposed Anaheim bond issue of $75,000 for the purchase of the block of land lying between Los Angeles and Lemon and Chestnut street and Broadway, for a city hall site and park purposes, was defeated recently by a vote of 551 to 337, lacking 40 votes of the necessary two-thirds majority more than 551 people were sick at heart.

At the time that the last opportunity for the city to secure the block of land had vanished with the adverse vote, as the options on the property would expire in November and there would be no way of holding another election before the expiration of the options.

But today a new spirit of optimism prevails.

The board of trade a few days ago began to sound out a few leading citizens regarding the formation of a holding company to take advantage of the options for the city, by paying for the land and holding it until the board of city trustees could call an election, issue bonds, and take it over.

This proposition seemed to meet with instant favor and a canvass for the necessary members of the holding company was started and one of the first men approached was J. P. Mayhew of 424 West Center street, Anaheim.

But Mayhew did not sign up. In-

S. A. Man's Auto Is Stolen As He Eats Meal in L. A. Cafe

Entering a safe at the corner of Seventh and Main street, Los Angeles, F. E. Miles, 917 North Bristol street, Santa Ana, ate what may prove to be one of the most expensive meals of his life, for while he was in the cafe his seven-passenger Chrysler automobile was stolen, according to a report made today to Sheriff C. E. Jackson.

Miles parked his car near the cafe at 8 o'clock last night. When he returned he found that the machine had been stolen.

The car is a new one and painted blue-black. It bears Serial license number 76265 and its motor number is 70300.

Instead, he came back with a counter proposition, and one that has met with enthusiasm by board of trade members.

It is this:

Mayhew says he favors anything to get the property for a park, but instead of being one of a holding company he says he prefers to be one of 75 citizens to subscribe $1000 each, buy the property, and present it outright to the city. He says he was not here to vote for the bonds, which he greatly regrets, and now desires to make amends by putting up a cold thousand of his own money for the purchase of the property.

It is believed by Attorney Otto T. Cailor and Postmaster J. Frederick Ahlborn, who first approached Mayhew for the holding company, that Mayhew's proposition will be received with delight by the park proponents and that it can be carried out by the people of Anaheim.

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you—Adv.

200 APPLY FOR AGED WOMAN IS FREE LIBRARY IN COUNTY ENVELOPED IN FLAMES

Hearing on Project Fixed For December 9 By Board of Supervisors

Whether or not Orange County will have a county free library service for schools, with a main library in Santa Ana and branches in the various school districts, is a question that is today on the county clerk's calendar for a hearing before the board of supervisors on December 9.

Mrs. G. H. Goodale of Anaheim, president of the district Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' Associations; Mrs. Charles Harvey of Brea and upwards of thirty other citizens of various sections of the county appeared before the supervisors and presented plans for the formation of the free library service.

Petitions, signed by 200 taxpayers, and asking the establishment of the service, were presented by Mrs. Harvey, who stated that in soliciting the signatures she had been refused in but one instance.

Frank Thompson, postmaster at Garden Grove, presented several letters he had received from various counties where the free library service has been installed. Facts and figures relative to the project were given by him.

The sections it is proposed to serve through the proposed library system are all outside of incorporated cities and library districts as they now exist. The signatures in the petition presented by Mrs. Harvey were all obtained outside incorporated cities and library districts.

The petitioners who appeared before the Board of Supervisors yesterday favor what is known as the separate county library system, under which the state librarian names the librarians who would serve in the various districts.

Under a second plan, favored by a number of taxpayers, the county government would handle the affairs of the library system. This plan is known as the contract system.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR GRADING PARK ROAD

Wells and Bressler's Bid Is Only One Before Board of Supervisors

Awarded the contract for grading the County Park road and for putting in culverts, Wells & Bressler, paving contractors of this city, today were making preliminary preparations looking toward the early beginning of the work.

The Wells & Bressler bid, for $29,238.90, was the only one before the board of supervisors. The office of County Surveyor J. L. McBride had estimated that the work would cost $31,342.68.

The work as mapped out by the county surveyor provides for the elimination of an 8 per cent and a 15 per cent grade on the section of road beginning where the county pavement at El Modena leaves off and ending at the entrance to the County Park. In the elimination of the steep grade as it exists at present the road will be made 1700 feet longer and at its highest point will be 50 feet higher than the old road, thus making the new road much more attractive scenically, as it will afford a more unobstructed view of the valley.

The new road will make a turn to the right at the foot of the grade and where it crosses the gulley. Thence it will turn east and thence north across the flat, after a straightish proper will begin. In the obviating of the grade, a heavy cut at the highest point of the road will be necessary.

While the work is in progress the road will be closed to traffic, McBride said. Motorists desiring to visit the park will have to go by way of what is known as Pepper avenue.

WIFE DENIES SHE BEAT YOUNG CHILD

Denying that she has treated her daughter, not yet three years old in a cruel and inhuman manner, Mrs. Ruth M. Roper of Los Angeles, formerly Mrs. Ruth M. Stockton, of this city, and who formerly drove a stage between Santa Ana and Huntington Beach, through an answer which was on file in Superior court today, will fight the petition of her former husband, Everett A. Stockton, for an order allowing him to have the custody of the child.

Mrs. Roper's answer, which was filed through Attorneys Eden & Coe of this city, denied that she has not been giving the child proper care. She alleged that in correcting her little girl, as was sometimes required, she has inflicted no greater punishment than the necessity of the case required. She said that her present home in Los Angeles is pleasant and that her husband, Charles Roper, and the child have grown mutually attached to each other.

Mrs. Roper denies that she ever whipped or beat the child to an extent seriously to threaten the child's health.

Stockton's petition was filed on October 23, through Attorney Morris A. Cain of this city. It was set forth that on the day after Mrs. Stockton had been awarded a final decree of divorce from Stockton, she had married Roper. The divorce suit was instituted by Stockton, but the wife was granted the decree.

A DISMISSION that J. B. Petrie and L. Fred Edmiston, plaintiffs in two quiet title actions brought against W. C. and Pauline Hetferns, own the property south of Placentia and east of Anaheim, where the Hetferns own an oil well, was contained in an answer prepared by Attorney Leonard Evans of Anaheim, and which was on file today. The defendants denied, however, that they had no right or interest in the property. They alleged that on March 1, 1918, Petrie and Edmiston entered into a contract with the defendants under the terms of which the latter were to prospect for oil and that on June 4, of the same year, and while the contract still was in force the plaintiffs and defendants, for a consideration, made a further contract whereby the plaintiffs agreed to extend the time of the contract for one year from March 1, 1919.

Superior Judge Williams today continued to Dec. 1 the trial of an action through which Earl W. Kissinger, proprietor, and Flora A. Brooks, who own the Laguna Beach Water company, and who were alleged to have violated an agreement under which they were to furnish water to the hotel.

The suit was filed on September 18, through Attorneys Harry R. Washburn and G. W. Caldwell, of Los Angeles. The plaintiffs asked an injunction which would prevent Skidmore from carrying out an alleged intention of shutting off the water supply from the tavern.

It was alleged that Skidmore at various periods diverted water from the pipeline leading to the hotel, using the water for irrigation purposes and that Skidmore pastured stock in an enclosure where a spring, feeding the pipeline, is located, contaminating the Preliminary preparations designed to facilitate the early commencement of paving on East Fourth street, from Mabury to Tustin road, were being made today by Wells & Bressler, local paving contractors, who, with a bid of $10,009.87, were awarded the contract by the board of supervisors. The office of County Surveyor J. L. McBride had estimated that the work would cost $10,769.42. The Orange County Engineering & Construction company put in a bid to do the work for $10,176.71, and the Redondo Construction company offered to do it for $10,513.96.

In addition to paving on East Fourth, the contract calls for the improvement of Tustin road, south to the State highway. The county will furnish the cement.

Ground Is Broken For New Masonic Temple, Fullerton

MARKING the start upon a new two-story structure which will entail an outlay of approximately $80,000, ground was broken this week for the new Masonic Temple at Fullerton, located on the north-west corner of Spadra and Chapman avenues. Several walnut trees on the property are being removed, and actual construction work will be started just as soon as the ground is cleared.

The new temple, it is declared, will be among the handsomest and best appointed Masonic buildings in the state, and will be used exclusively for lodge purposes. The Spanish Colonial style of architecture will predominate. Architect Bencelay will have personal charge of the construction work.

The Fullerton Masons recently sold their old temple at Spadra and America avenues, and as soon as their new building is completed their old quarters will be remodeled into apartments.

Two other large business structures are now being erected in Fullerton, in addition to a large number of private residences, the Lillian veger garage and the American Electric Co. building.

PRINCESS SITE ON MAIN SOLD AT $400 TO $500 FOOT

J. E. Liebig and Chas. F. Smith Purchase Property From Wm. F. Lutz

Another piece of Main street business property today is in the hands of new owners, with the sale of the lot on which the Princess theater is located, to J. E. Liebig and Charles F. Smith by Wm. F. Lutz. The frontage is fifty feet and the price paid is between $400 and $500 per front foot. The consideration is not made public beyond the statement that it is between the figures quoted.

Lutz has owned the property for many years and has disposed of it in the development of plans that he has in view. The building belongs to T. P. Kinney and R. H. Hall. The ground lease for the building expires next August.

The new owners have no plans for improvement of the lot at this time, but it is probable that by the time the lease expires plans will have been developed for the erection of a modern business building.

Advancing rents on business houses in the block is making a demand for property there. This is one of the first sales in the block that has been made in a number of years.

Smith owns valuable property on the corner of Main and Third street, where the Edison company office is now located, and has increased his interest in the block by joining Liebig in the purchase of the Lutz property.

REUTHER WILL BUILD $15,000 RESIDENCE

ANAHEIM, Nov. 6.—The foundation will be started this week for an elaborate two-story mansion, costing $15,000, for John Reuther, of the Anaheim Beef and Provision Co., at Los Angeles and Alberta streets. It will be one of the finest homes in the city and will be constructed of interlocking hollow tile, with hardwood floor and other modern building materials and features, materials to be supplied by the Griffith Lumber Co., N. B. Tedford is the builder.

Mr. Tedford says there is an enormous demand for building. He has turned down a dozen jobs within the last few days because of the lack of carpenters.

He is completing a $3,000 five-room house for M. Casey on Adele street, an eight-room modern residence and garage to cost $4,000 on the Stanton road near Buena Park, and a brick building for the Maxwell Auto Paint Shop of East Center street.

NEW WALNUT HOUSE BEING CONSIDERED

ANAHEIM, Nov. 6.—The Anaheim Walnut Association is enjoying such a prosperous season that the proposition of putting up a new fireproof packing house is being considered.

The present building is not large enough to handle such a crop as has been harvested in this district this year. It is not fireproof and several times this season it has been jammed to the roof with nuts worth upwards of $60,000. Of course, heavy insurance is carried, and two watchmen are on duty each night, but the hazard is such that a fireproof building is being given consideration.

Deliberations have not reached the point where it can be said such an improvement will be made before next season, although several of the directors are known to desire this.

The advertising value of an attractive packing plant for this important industry of the district is also added reason for the improvement, the directors say.

Pomona Man Buys.

F. C. Coyner, of Pomona, has purchased the southwest 10 acres of the B. Miller 40-acre tract, about three and one-half miles southwest of Fullerton. Mr. Coyner has owned orange groves in the vicinity of Pomona and is thoroughly familiar with the business. The present purchase is a six-year-old Valencia grove and one of the best in this section.

The California Packing Corporation will erect at Isleton, on the Sacramento river, what will be the biggest asparagus cannery in the world.

HISTORIC TRACT NEAR ANAHEIM BOUGHT BY HARRIS

Thirty Acres of John Hanna Estate Is Disposed of By Mrs. Polhemus

With the consummation of a number of deals in realty in the county in the past week or so, indications are that there is still a strong demand for good ranch properties at prices that are very attractive to holders. Money today is the cheapest thing in the world, it is plentiful and capital is seeking investment. The war has made hundreds of farmers and manufacturing men wealthy, and they today are coming to California to invest their money and bask in the sunshine, deserting their former homes for the many comforts and warm while conditions that obtain here.

The sale by J. P. Hatzfeld of his ten acres at Placentia for $5000 per acre, which is recorded in another column, is the record price in Orange county for a grove where there are no fine building improvements, and it is believed to be the high water mark in Southern California.

One of the important deals of recent consummation, and one without historic piece of property passing to the hands of new owners for the first time in fifty years, was the sale of the John Hanna thirty acres just north of the southern Pacific branch to Tustin on the Anaheim road to C. H. Harris. The consideration was about $40,000. Harris recently sold a grove near Fullerton for $65,000 and has invested a portion of his money in this piece. The property was in an estate and was sold by Mrs. Emma Polhemus, daughter of the pioneer owner. The land is planted to oranges and walnuts. The walnuts are old trees, and Harris will dig these up and plant the place to oranges. The sale was made through the agency of Harris Bros. of this city.

Oasis in the Desert.
John Hanna located on the tract some fifty years ago, and made the place a sort of an oasis on the desert. For at the time there was a wilderness of sand between Santa Ana and Anaheim. This particular piece of ground was an exception to the general character of soil and mustard grew on the place to extreme heights. In those days big growths of mustard were considered an indication of high class soil.

Ed Parker, of the Orange County Title Company, hunted all through that section with Hanna in the early days, tramping down mustard in hunting rabbits. The place was a "green spot" between Santa Ana and Anaheim in the days when it was a big day's work for a team to make the round trip from Santa Ana to Anaheim, because of the hard pull through the sand. Today all that territory that was a waste at that time is one of the prettiest and richest in the county.

W. H. James, the confectioner, has been taking on a little more cash by selling his ten acres on Prospect avenue for $30,000. The purchaser is Frank Arundell. The location of the tract is just south of Santa Clara avenue on Prospect. James has been developing the place and has pocketed considerable profit. Arundell recently purchased fifteen acres adjoining the James ranch, this most recent acquisition making him twenty-two acres of oranges. The deal was handled by Shaw & Russell.

N. J. Warner, real estate man, who has been making newcomers happy by locating them on good pieces of Orange county property, himself has entered the purchasing class and has acquired a ten-acre citrus grove in the Villa Park section. He has bought the J. F. Allen ten-acre tract south of the packing house at Villa Park and adjoining a piece that he and Shelly Horton formerly owned. The consideration was $33,000. There is a good residence and other buildings on the tract. It is understood that Warner has bought the place with a view to making it his home sometime in the future.

Here to Join Father.
Louis Kilson has come here to join his father, C. E. Kilson, and has bought a small tract adjoining the purchase on McFadden street, recently made by his father, when he acquired a walnut grove from D. G. Cole. The son's purchase is the four and a half acre tract of H. G. Cope land on McFadden. This deal was made by Carden & Liebig. This firm also reports the sale of city property

British Baby Prize Winner Proves Favorite on Ship

Happy Tyke on Journey to Ottawa

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—America can boast a lot about her beautiful, healthy, happy children, but England, too, has something to say on that subject as has other nations of the world.

However, England has produced proof of her claims to fine children in the person of baby Violet Booker who has just arrived in America with her parents aboard the steamship Vaughn.

Baby Violet was declared the perfect English baby at a recent baby show in London. She was born in Ottawa, Can., two years ago, and now weighs 31½ lbs. She is a beautiful child and was a favorite among the passengers on the ship coming over. The baby is going back to visit friends and relatives in Ottawa. She hasn't much to say about things in general but folks aboard the Vaughn found her a happy little tyke with a smile for everyone and apparently at peace with the world.

PROPOSE HOLDING CO. CENTRAL PARK SITE

ANAHEIM, Nov. 6.—A movement is under way to form a holding company of public-spirited citizens and take over the library site proposed for a central city park, holding it until the voters are ready to endorse it. It has been felt by the big majority who voted for it five weeks ago that a fatal and irreparable error would be permitted if this logical place for a park were passed up.

The movement to form the holding company has attained rather pretentious headway and it is believed there would be no trouble in getting a group of civic-minded citizens who would subscribe to the necessary fund.

It is known that some of the property owners in the site, although they could right now sell for considerably more than they optioned their property to the city, are sufficiently public-spirited as to enter into such a holding company, bearing a part of the expense of holding the land themselves. Matters have gone far enough so that it is believed the park site could be held by the raising of around $30,000, which, of course, would be returned to those advancing the money when the city took over the park. It is felt that a two-thirds majority vote would be readily forthcoming for this site as a park and it has been suggested that the issue could be voted upon in connection with the regular spring election.

HATZFELD GETS RECORD PRICE FOR ORANGE GROVE

Local Druggist Sells 10 Acres At Placentia For $50,000

Indicating that the "peak load" in high prices for good citrus orchards has not yet been attained, J. P. Hatzfeld this week accepted an offer of $50,000 for his ten acre grove in the Placentia district, just north of the ranch home of A. S. Bradford. The purchaser is S. B. Smith, a cotton grower of Texas, who is stopping at Pasadena temporarily. It is understood that he contemplates making his home on the property in the future, when he will erect a handsome mansion. His occupancy, however, is not anticipated in the immediate future.

Hatzfeld has owned the property for 11 years, purchasing it as bare land and setting it to Valencia. This is believed to be the record price per acre for a Southern California citrus grove. There is no residence on the property, unless an old building moved onto the place sometime ago could be called a residence, and there is no value to the property as prospective oil land. It is outside of the oil activity.

It is one of the prettiest orchards to be found anywhere in Southern California. It has been Hatzfeld's pride and he has given the place extra care and attention. He has had good big returns from the fruit since the orchard came into bearing, and the revenue has been sufficient to justify the price of $5,000 per acre paid by the new owner.

Hatzfeld recently purchased the place of ground at Tustin lying in a triangle formed by B street, Newport Road and the state highway, upon which he proposes the erection of a fine residence for a permanent home. He is now casting about for new ideas in house construction and when he has formulated plans in his own mind he will pass his ideas on to an architect and have plans drawn.

DATA BEING PREPARED IN L. A. SUGAR PROBE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—Attaches of the U. S. Attorney's office today began preparing data bearing on the sugar situation. It is being prepared for the federal grand jury which probably will reach the sugar probe Friday. Reports indicate that the investigation centering here will have a wide effect on the sugar situation throughout the state. The data in possession of the U. S. Attorney, it was learned today, includes a statement from one sugar beet grower alleging he saw in a warehouse here an immense quantity of sugar marked "hold for December." Dealers are claiming there is no sugar in the city.

HISTORIC TRACT NEAR ANAHEIM PURCHASED

Mrs. Polhemus Sells Thirty Acres of the John Hanna Estate For $40,000

as follows: The residence of Mrs. David Crawford at 1425 North Main to a Mr. Andrews, a newcomer, Mrs. Crawford giving possession in thirty days; the residence of Miss Sedalia Cubbison at 1119 North Main to J. B. Winslow for $4600.

Chas. E. Searls, who has been residing here since last January, has decided that Santa Ana is the place he wants to make his permanent home in and has purchased the G. M. Lambert residence at 202 South Birch, through the agency of Carden & Liebig, Searls is an old friend of C. M. Gowdy and seems to have followed that gentleman to the land of sunshine. Thirty-five years ago, back at New Bremen, New York, Searls purchased a general merchandise business from Gowdy, and disposed of the business to come to California. Searls came here with a view to locating, but wanted to be sure that he would be satisfied before buying a home. Ten months of residence has convinced him that Santa Ana is the ideal home city, and that conviction has resulted in his annexing a pretty home on one of the pretty residence streets of the city. The property he has purchased formerly was owned by Neal Beisel—Beisel erecting the residence.

H. G. Copeland, who has just sold his place on McFadden street, has bought the W. D. Barker place at 2409 North Main street. There are between two and three acres in the piece. Barker had purchased the Arthur Pease residence on Spurgeon street.

Shaw & Russell report recent sales as follows:

- W. R. Coleman residence at 833 North Flower, to J. J. Parks.
- Residence of Maude M. Peacock, 701 South Broadway, to J. R. Bruff.
- E. J. Edwards residence at 1515 North Ross, to Mr. Peiley.
- Wayne Goble, two residences on lot at northeast corner of Van Ness and Second, to Mrs. McGee.
- Fred Newcomb residence, 414 South Sycamore, to Mrs. Peacock.
- Three residences of Roy Russell at Riverline and Halesworth, to W. R. Sylvester (corner), Asa Snyder and Mrs. Getchell, mother of Mrs. Sylvester, who is expected soon from the East.

PITTSBURG EDUCATOR WILL LOCATE AT BREA

If they come to California they like it; if they come to Orange county they like it better; and if they come to Brea they like it best, says the Brea Progress. Some time ago H. W. Goodwin, of Pittsburgh, Pa., came to California; he did better than that—he came to Orange county; but he didn't attain the superlative till he came to Brea. Straightway he hungered for a slice of California soil, so that is why immediately on his return East he sold his property and wrote W. A. Culp that he wanted that particular parcel of land with oranges lying at the corner of Madrona and Cedar streets, containing four and a half acres. This was the corner Mr. Culp was saving for himself, but being a good brother-in-law, he cheerfully surrendered the site.

Mr. Goodwin is a well-known educator in Pittsburgh and will probably take up educational work after establishing a residence in Brea. He will build on the property at once and his advent will be welcomed in the community.

CANNING CO. BUILDING FOR FOREMAN ENFIELD

PLACENTIA, Nov. 6.—The Placentia Canning Company has purchased, through Christensen & Rideout, F. J. Pratt's lot on North Main and will build a dwelling for their foreman, Jos. Enfield. Mr. Pratt has bought a home in Anaheim and will move to that city in the near future.

R. D. Dunham is another lucky mortal who is sure of a home and will not be troubled by rent increases. He has purchased from Chris Anderson the house which he now occupies, next to the Kraemer building on Bradford avenue.

J. T. Tayles has had carpenters at work making some needed improvements in his house. He will also have a garage built.

Howard Lucy has purchased H. C. Foss' house on Chapman avenue, and will take possession as soon as Foss can find a house in Fullerton.

W. H. Prewitt has bought a lot from J. E. Stone, at Olive and Walnut, and is building a cottage.

DEALS AT LAGUNA

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 6.—Mr. Helwig of Hemet bought Fred Clapp's 75-foot frontage, the seller agreeing to remove the little brown house and all the other improvements. Mr. Helwig intends to move his own house on the property, meaning the small house next to E. E. Jahraus' office. All of this building juggling has to be done within thirty days.

Mr. Fred Aufdenkamp has perfected plans to erect a concrete picture theater. The present structure will be torn down, the trees removed and there will arise an edifice that will be a credit to Laguna Beach and a fitting testimonial to the progressiveness of the proprietor.

Mr. Perry Warren bought the property upon which the fish market and its neighboring yellow house is located. Mr. Warren still has the lease of the market. Mr. Warren is well acquainted with local realty values and his choice of site, taking into consideration the coming of the coast road, is an excellent one.

Better Speech Week Brings Home a Variety of Errors

Better speech is sweeping Santa Ana high school this week. Those who have been watching its progress are satisfied that a great deal of betterment has been accomplished, and that permanent results of a pleasing nature are to be counted upon.

Everyone is "scared" for when an expression that is incorrect is noticed that expression is written upon a blackboard or the student is immediately corrected.

Better speech posters and signs adorn the high school halls, walks, doors and pictures. "I seen," "I come today," "I done," "He don't" and "I have went," with broad rec lines indicating the errors, are tacked to every door, while the words, "Are you trying to use good English?" are seen frequently.

"To say 'this here' sounds queer, and do you think before you speak. Then good English you will seek."

This is a good example of jingles found on blackboards. Some very clever posters, which will be used in the contest among classes at assembly Thursday are exhibited. One of these is the death of poor speech in S. A. H. S. (the bed). The doctor holds the patient's pulse and advises good English, who stands on the threshold, to notify his friends and relatives, as the sick man will probably not live long.

A building representing the high school, from which a great foot called student body, is kicking Slang and Poor Speech is depicted by Claire Sharpless, a junior. O. Garber, of the commercial department, has a good poster in the commercial building. A young man expresses his ideas in this manner:

"Hot dawg!"
"Aw right."
"Gimme sumepin'"
"Vie anythin'"
"Then guys don't know nothin'"
"Yea, but I been learned a lot of things, but it don't stick. I giss my brains are too fula junk 'n'everthin'."
On the top of this sign is this: "Do you belong to this class?"
Two posters by John H. Donan, both very good, and one with the words: "Has the mail come yet?" by Marie Munger, are Freshmen art work.
One well worth mentioning is that showing the Senior and Sophomore, each dressed in his class colors, conversing. The Soph says: "Say whad-dava know, guy, I'm gonna quit slip-in' the slang."

And from the Junior: "Aw, can that chatter, I done that long ago."

If the students of the high school "murder the king's English" while they have all these things about them to remind them of the ridiculous side of incorrect speech, they are indeed hard to impress.

Today's assembly at 11:20 o'clock is being devoted to better speech. The program follows:

- School song.
- Announcements.
- Speeches:—
  - (1) Good English—A Preliminary Survey of the Subject.
  - (2) The Value of Good English to the Business man—E. B. Sprague.
  - (3) The Value of Good English to the student in other than English Classes—J. R. Beuff.

Music:—
Carmena Waltz—Wilson
Damasus Triumphant March—Coster
Boys and Girls' Glee Club.
Playlet—"O'Henry"—by Courier
The Drama Class.
Class yells for "Better Speech Week."

COURSE GUARANTORS RELEASED BY BABER

The guarantors who signed a contract for bringing seven numbers of a lyceum course to Santa Ana have been released from the contract by J. A. Baber, representative of the company, that was to send the attractions here. Baber did this following a statement by S. H. Finley, who said that his name had been used in an unauthorized way to secure signers to the contract. Baber has made the following statement:

"I very much regret that Col. Finley, or anyone else, should feel that his name had been used in an unauthorized way. Nothing was further from my intention and if an undue emphasis was put on his connection as manager of the proposed course it could doubtless find its explanation in the joy we all felt that a man of such ability and character could be secured to head so important a community service."

"Of course, the guarantors who so generously gave their support to the movement are all released, and if the course is put on at all a new start will have to be made. I hold myself ready to co-operate with any individual or organization who may be willing to take the lead in giving to Santa Ana the uplift and inspiration that come from a good course of this kind."

Cottage Needs Clothes.

"Behold," said the agent, a vine-clad cottage!

"Vine-clad is all well enough, but this cottage needs additional clothing."

"Eh?"

HOME BUILDING HITS STRIDE AT LAST

Closing Days of October Bumps Into Record For Activity

ANAHEIM, Nov. 6.—The new building movement in Anaheim, particularly the construction of new homes, within the last few days has caught a stride that exceeds anything ever before seen. Here are some interesting indications of the way things are moving in Anaheim:

Saturday, November 1, City Clerk Merritt issued seven building permits for a total of $10,250.

In the 11 days from October 23 to November 1, he issued 17 permits, of which 13 were for residences.

In October he issued 20 permits for a total of $57,340.

From July 10 to November 1, he issued 68 permits, compared with a total of 62 for all of 1918.

To date this year he has issued 138 permits for $282,850 worth of building, compared with the 62 permits for a total of $92,000 last year.

Here are the building permits issued Saturday:

E. R. Barnes, on East Broadway, between Claudina and Philadelphia streets; from residence 28x53; cost $3,700; L. N. McMacken, contractor.

Anton Kleuwes, alteration to front of Exchange Grill; cost $50.

W. F. Maas, on South Illinois street, between Center and Broadway; frame residence 22x34; garage 12x16; cost $3300; Ben Bencke, contractor.

BIG ATTENDANCE IN SCHOOLS OF COUNTRY SOILS BETTERED CITIES HIDDEN BY WORMS

Columbia University Leads With California In Second Place

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Class rooms crowded to capacity, American college and university attendance records this fall have proved that youth has taken more seriously than ever the matter of getting an education, after returning from the school of war.

Reports from every section of the country have shown large gains in attendance figures. Dormitories, rooming houses and fraternity houses in every college town are crowded. In many sections scores of applicants have been turned away for lack of room.

Anxiety to get back to civilian life; to pick up the odd ends of a college course where they were dropped, and continue the training started in war work—which in thousands of cases was the first opportunity for pursuit of knowledge—are given as reasons for the increased activity on the campuses.

Leading the list of American colleges and universities in attendance is Columbia University, New York City, gaining 25 per cent since last year, the attendance today stood at 24,815, including all the schools in the corporation. A year ago the enrollment was 18,514.

Claiming second place is the University of California, Berkeley, with 9,427 enrolled in the winter term. The summer registration was 5,456, or a yearly attendance of 14,883. The enrollment for the winter session is 53 per cent above that of last year.

Middle West Near Front
The largest registrations in the country continue this year to be in the middle west, with the exception of the largest two. The University of Minnesota, St. Paul, enrolled 7,006, an increase of 1,635 over last year, Illinois ranked fourth with 7,214 as against 6,700 last year. Wisconsin was next with 6,875, or 1,872 more than were enrolled in 1918-19.

In the east Harvard ranks highest. This year there were 5,017 students registered at Cambridge, while last year there were but 3,894. At Yale there are 3,133 or 730 more than in the last session.

Registration of other large colleges of the country compared with last year follow:

GROWING OF SWEET ONIONS A SUCCESS

Riverside county is the only section in the United States where the variety of onion known as the "sweet Spanish" is grown at a profit. On 35 acres of Santa Ana river bottom land the Kirkpatrick-Thompson company is curing something like 12,500 crates of this variety of onions which is valued at close to $30,000.

This is the first time the Spanish sweets have been grown successfully in the United States. Last year the Kirkpatrick-Thompson company attempted to grow the onions without water and they lost about $8000. Their experience was costly, but they removed to the river bottom, over near the fair grounds, where the soil is silt and under water and their efforts were successful, as the crop will show.

But the profit to the company is not so large as one would imagine. First the loss of $8000 stared the company in the face. Then the cost of labor, rent, water and last but not least, the high cost of crates in which to ship, cut the profits down to only a reasonable one on the time, labor and investment. However, the company is well pleased and next year from 65 to 70 acres will be planted.

It requires nine months for the onions to mature. They are planted in January and harvested in September. Sixty days are necessary to properly cure the harvested crop. The seed is grown from the bulb and comes off in July. The seed is planted with a seeder and they are dropped about two to three inches apart. The market for the onions is Detroit, Chicago, Butte, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The company hopes to create a market farther east and compete with the imported product from Spain.

The crop of the Kirkpatrick-Thompson company is now being seasoned and crated under tents a short distance north of the entrance to the fair grounds.

Let Posterity Judge.

"Better let posterity judge it. No telling what tastes may be then."

Mother Earth's First and Best Plowman An Asset to Farmers

Men looking for ancient history with a spade found in Philistia three dead cities, one buried on top of another. Who buried them and how, is not a matter of record. But certain naturalists contend that the larger part of the burying was done by the earthworm, our garden friend, known to boys as the angleworm.

The gardener in his summer spadings, comes frequently upon this flexible gimlet incarnate, which in dry weather fills the dry clods full of eyelets, and in wet weather climbs into the rain barrel. We have thought of this creature as an accident; or perhaps have figured it as the Creator's way of providing cheap meat for robins and the neighbor's chickens. But scientists come forward with the theory that this humble worm is earth's first and best plowman; that without this industrious subsoiler, the fields would go stale and the soil go on hunger strike.

It is believed that once in a certain round of years every particle of top soil is elaborated by this worm, being carried up or carried down, or milled between its toothless gums, or at least aerated by means of its perforations, and so made fit for crop bearing. Before Adam swung his clamshell hoe in the Garden of the Euphrates, the angleworm had right there to fine up the soil for him. When the evicted Eve, in tears, dug with an old stick her first radish bed among the thorns and briars, the friendly earthworm was there to make the task a little easier.

Doubtless at the time of the flood the population of anglewormdom was fearfully reduced, for an angleworm can drown. Possibly a few of the best of the breed crawled up the gangplank of the Ark before the rain began. At any rate the tribe increased and multiplied mightily on the face of the earth after the waters subsided. They got down to Philistia in time to bury those three cities. Angleworms were the burial squad that officiated at the fall of Nineveh and of Tyre. They labored in raising the mounds that cover the towers and hanging gardens of once proud Babylon.

And during all those ages no wise mortal ever suspected that his daily bread and gravy, yes, the very existence of his generation as well as the decent burial of his ancestors, he owed to this poor muck, this fellow, this plodding peon, this peasant of the invertebrate world. But so it is. And so it ever shall be, world without end. For the smooth, harmonious functioning of his good earth is carried continuously on by those who piod, without much credit or glory of glittering reward.—Minneapolis Journal.

ALIENS ANXIOUS TO RETURN TO AMERICA

Aliens who rushed back to their native countries at the end of the war are returning to America after brief visits to their European homes.

Shocked by the poverty and desolation which they found in the war zones, and surprised to learn the cost of living is even higher in Europe they are coming back to the United States in large numbers. Various organizations in this city are preparing for a great exodus from Europe, which they believe will begin within a few weeks.

According to Naoum Pericleous, manager of the Greek-American agency, many members of his race were anxious to return to Greece when the world war ended to learn the fate of their relatives during the conflict. Because of special circumstances they were granted passports to Greece.

When they reached their families abroad they found food and clothing far more expensive there than in this country. Military restrictions by their own government had not been relaxed and they concluded America was a far more desirable home. Anxious to regain the liberties of a democracy, they are awaiting the permission of immigration authorities to come here.

Similar conditions were described in "Little Italy." Two thousand Italians applied for passports to America within the past few weeks.

There is little immigration now from Russia and Poland, according to Howard S. Levy, president of the Jewish Immigration society. Plans have been made by that organization, however, to meet a heavy influx soon from those countries. Mr. Levy said that a few hundred children and adults recently had come to this city from Vladivostok.

Farther and Faster.

Redd—They say the government will soon begin sending money by airplane.

Greene—That looks, then, as if a dollar soon will not only go as far as it used to, but faster—Yonkers Statesman.

Keep Your Clothes Looking New

The only way in which you can get your money's worth out of your clothes now is by keeping them new a long time. It isn't the wear so much that shortens the life of a garment as the dust and dirt that works into it while it is worn.

Clothing costs lots of money these days and it pays to take good care of it. You'll add to the life of your garments if you let this shop keep them nicely cleaned and pressed. The dust and dirt works into the fabric and weakens it if not removed frequently. Our methods of dry cleaning leave your garments fresh and clean, removing every particle of foreign matter which may have worked in, leaving them just like new.

ADVANCE MADE BY FILIPINOS IS REMARKABLE

Percentage of Literacy In the Islands Is Shown In Statistics

A recent cable from Vice-Governor Yeater to the war department states that seventy per cent of the inhabitants of the Philippines over ten years old are literate, as shown by a census taken in 1918.

Of the estimated population of 10,500,000, 10,000,000 are civilized Christians, while 500,000 represent the non-Christians, or so-called wild tribes. The latter, however, are included in the population, of which seventy per cent are literate.

The percentage of literacy in the Philippines, as shown by the census just completed, is almost as high as that of some of the southern states of the union, higher than that of Greece, Italy, Portugal, Rumania and Serbia. It is also higher than that of any of the new countries whose independence is being recognized by the Allies.

It is pointed out that there is every reason for the literacy of the Philippines to be still higher within the next few years, through the action of the Philippine legislature at its last session in voting 30,000,000 pesos to extend the educational system so that school will be available to every child and youth in the Philippines.

Between 1912 and 1918 the total number of children in school increased from 440,000 to 675,000, a gain of fifty-four per cent in six years. The number of intermediate pupils grew to 67,000, a gain of 160 per cent. The number of high school students reached 16,000, a gain of 230 per cent.

The Philippine legislature, composed entirely of Filipinos, now supports 4,700 schools, with a teaching force of 12,303 teachers. All instruction is in English, and will continue to be if independence is granted. A large number of additional American teachers are to be employed and sent to the Philippines within the next year. All of the expense of education is being paid by the Philippine government.—Americanization.

ELEVEN REALTY DEALS MADE IN ELEVEN DAYS

Growing Demand For Residence and Business Property In Harbor City

The rapidly growing demand for business and residence property at Newport, incident to the notable harbor improvements being made there, is reflected in the business of real estate firms of Newport Beach, and hardly a day passes but what one or more properties pass to new ownership, in addition to the rental business which is fast filling the available beach houses for the winter.

One of the realty firms which takes the candy is that of Hugh McMillan and his brother-in-law, W. A. Irwin, who recently associated themselves in the real estate business at Newport. This firm, just starting up, put through eleven deals aggregating $25,000 in eleven days recently, and are going after more. Both local and outside capital is being invested in harbor property, which it is felt is bound to increase rapidly in value as the harbor project is further developed through expenditure of the county's $500,000 bond issue.

A Newport investment company, in which McMillan and Irwin are interested, bought seventeen lots at 20th street, in the industrial district for $8,500 and will at once prepare them for market by grading and laying sidewalks. Other Newport deals made by this firm include the following:

Mrs. Lott, cottage to Albert Racker, $2000.

Lew H. Wallace, three bay front lots to T. A. Blakeley for fertilizer plant, $3000.

Mrs. Talbott, cottage to Mrs. Byrnes, $950.

S. W. Mann, cottage to Alice Smith, $1000.

John King to Hugh McMillan, three bay front lots, $3600.

John King to John and Hugh McMillan, bay front lot, $1000.

Mr. Hemstreet, lot to Sadie M. Irwin, $400. A building is planned for this property.

Ben Clapp of Santa Ana, cottage to Roy O. Stearns, $1150.

John King, lot to Mrs. Rocks, $450.

John King to S. M. Irwin, residence on 30th street (King home place), $2500.

A Doubtful Compliment.

Alice—And so I refused him on the ground that I am too young to marry.

Marie—Oh, you clever girl! Who else would have thought of that excuse from you?—Boston Transcript.

$500,000 CO. IS FORMING FOR BUILDING

Big Movement On to Provide Homes For Rent and For Sale

ANAHEIM, Nov. 6.—A $500,000 corporation to build homes in Anaheim is being organized as the greatest effort yet inaugurated by any Southern California city to relieve the housing shortage.

The incorporation papers will be in the hands of the incorporators, numbering some of the leading business men of the city, within a few days.

It is proposed to sell about $150,000 or $200,000 worth of stock immediately. It is known where a big part of this can be placed in large blocks, but everyone will be given an opportunity to take advantage of the investment opportunity, which will be backed by bonds later.

It is planned to build houses to rent and to sell. A large part of the fund, it is anticipated, will be kept continually revolving with the building and selling of residences.

While the promoters feel they are performing a civic duty in thus aiding the city to grasp the greatest opportunity ever presented to expand by providing on a wholesale scale houses to meet the enormous demand from people who desire to make their homes here, they are assured of a good investment for the same reason.

It is expected that there will be a very widespread subscription to the stock of the corporation. There are ample funds awaiting such an opportunity as indicated by the heaviest growth in bank deposits recently the city has ever seen.

The shortage of houses, not only in Anaheim and throughout Southern California, but throughout the country, is a well known fact. The city that provides the homes is going to grow, and grow just as rapidly as they can be provided. This is Anaheim's opportunity and there are men here with sufficient public spirit and business foresight to make the most of the opportunity.

GARDEN GROVE ON EVE GREAT BUILDING BOOM

Garden Grove News: From all indications a Garden Grove is on the eve of a remarkable building era. The opinion of those in close touch with the situation is that the coming spring will show in development a decided increase over many previous years.

RAILS CARRYING LARGE NUMBERS OF TOURISTS

Register Kept at Arizona Town Indicates Travel Westward by Auto

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 6.—An indication of the large amount of westbound travel at the present time is found in the fact that Santa Fe Overland, No. 1, Santa Fe train No. 3, California Limited, and Salt Lake Limited, No. 201, all ran in two sections yesterday. On Sunday morning Santa Fe Overland No. 1 was carrying more than 400 passengers when it arrived at the local station.

Arrangements have already been made for running twelve extra sections of the California Limited from Chicago during December and indications are that it will be necessary to run extra sections every day during the month except possibly December 23, 24 and 25. During November second sections of the limited will be run out of Chicago every Tuesday, beginning this week, and as much often as necessity demands.

The railroads are not getting all of the transcontinental business, however. A local Santa Fe official remarked yesterday that on Saturday he noticed five automobiles with license plates representing foreign states, parked in front of the local depot. Regarding the large amount of automobile travel to the west, the current issue of the Santa Fe Magazine remarks as follows:

"The rapid rise of cross country automobile travel since a few years ago, when the transcontinental trip was undertaken only by the most adventurous, is shown by the register kept at Springerville, Ariz., for tourists. Two thousand six hundred and fifty-nine automobiles registered there up to the middle of summer. The average number of passengers carried by each car numbered four, so that practically 10,000 tourists passed through that town since the opening of the roads in the spring, or during the period of only two months."

GETTING READY TO BUILD

BREA, Nov. 6.—Peter Fackelman, who lately bought property on Cedar street, is getting ready to build on it. A water line has been run to this property and Mr. Fackelman expects to have his new residence under way shortly.

Mr. William Robertson is another resident who will get busy on a new house in the near future. The property on which he lives has been sold to a Taft party which will force Mr. Robertson and family to get busy.

RUHMANN BLOCK IS PURCHASED FOR $24,080

Frontage of 75 Feet on Los Angeles Street, Anaheim, Sold

ANAHEIM, Nov. 6.—Another important downtown realty transfer was made when the court ratified the sale of the Ruhmann block on North Los Angeles street, just north of the Golden State Bank, to John Eymann. The property has been in charge of Max Nebelung, administrator of the Ruhmann estate. The consideration was $24,080.

There is 75 feet frontage on Los Angeles street and it is 172 feet deep. The block now is leased to the Chalmers feed store, Mission pool hall and Edmiston's grocery. While Mr. Eymann has some plans for the improvement of the property, he is not announcing them now.

Lambert Stoffel has sold his ten-acre ranch on the Olive road and has purchased the home of Earl Abbey, corner of Claudina and Broadway, paying $5000. Mr. Abbey, who is deputy county clerk, last Thursday purchased a home at 315 South Main street, Santa Ana, and Friday morning thought it would go up in smoke when twenty residences within a block were fired by the breaking of a high-voltage wire. However, it was saved.

The C. B. Berger Company has sold to Henry Kroeger, Jr., and Augusta Kroeger, his wife, from Messrs. Smith and Jewett, the beautiful 12-acre orange grove and home of the latter, situated on the paved boulevard one and one-half miles east of Anaheim.

The Kroegers' new property is solid to bearing Valencia oranges, is under a very high state of cultivation, has proven a very heavy producer and is one of the most ideal locations for a grove-home that could be desired.

Dr. J. E. Jewett, and his father-in-law, F. E. Smith, of Whittier, have extensive grove holdings in this section of the state, and it was for the purpose of relieving Mr. Smith, who is in the advanced years of life, of some of the responsibilities of supervising their culture, that this splendid property was placed on the market. Mr. and Mrs. Kroeger will continue their residence on their beautiful grove at Fullerton, having purchased the Anaheim property as an investment.

F. W. Schmidt, Fargo tractor representative, has purchased the Snave five-acre Valencia ranch a half mile west of the Garden Grove road on Broadway. He is building a home.

Mrs. D. Wentz of Dubuque, Iowa, completed.

WOMAN'S CLUB IS OFFERED LOT FOR HOUSE

R. W. George Displays Commendable Spirit In Generous Proffer

FULLERTON, Nov. 6.—R. W. George has offered a lot in La Habra to the La Habra Woman's Mutual Improvement club for the erection of their new club house, providing they erect a building of which he approves. The lot is located on the southwest corner of First and Wallace streets, La Habra. A committee meeting has been called to meet at the home of Mrs. H. E. Hart for the purpose of talking over plans and it is hoped that definite plans can be arranged shortly.

Mrs. C. Witzel has purchased the home of F. J. Dausen on Glenwood avenue and Mr. Dausen's family are occupying a residence on East Commonwealth avenue while their ranch home is being built.

Herbert Foss has sold his home on Chapman avenue, Placentia, to Howard Lucy. Mr. Foss and family will move to Fullerton and make their home, he having accepted a position in the First National Bank and has entered upon his new duties.

H. W. Shepherd, of 237 East Commonwealth avenue has sold lots nine and ten on Commonwealth to James E. Moore. Mr. Moore recently returned from government service. The sale was made through the agency of Charles R. Sutherland, 114 South Spadra.

Mrs. Arey, sister of Mrs. George Amerige, has purchased the residence at 229 West Amerige avenue of F. P. Waters, who resides in the vicinity of Buena Park. Mrs. Arey will occupy the place as a home, it being a highly improved property and centrally located.

has purchased the new seven-room residence just completed by D. W. Anderson & Sons at the corner of Lemon and Alberta streets. This new home presents a very attractive appearance, both interior and exterior. The floor plan is very conveniently arranged, having ten built-in features. The electric work, which was done by the Holland Electric Company, is probably the most complete and convenient in the city. Mrs. Wentz will take possession at once. The builders expect to begin the erection of another nifty up-to-date home in the Zeyn tract in the very near future. They expect to place the house on the market at a reasonable figure as soon as it is completed.

Pleasure Craft at Anchor in Newport Bay

To spend the winter at Newport-Balboa beaches, with their 100% "water climate," is one of the delights of California just now being realized by many people, although permanent beach residents and others have long known that the beach climate is the best the year 'round—warmer in winter and cooler in summer.

"The winter is the best season of the year at the beach," said one prominent Santa Ana man while enjoying a day at Newport-Balboa, and this sentiment is echoed by many members of the "winter colony" which is fast filling up the available houses and apartments.

People who wintered last year at Newport-Balboa are coming again, and more than two dozen houses have been taken for the next six months by people arriving within the last fortnight. And more are coming every day.

Here they find substantial, comfortable homes, with gas, lights, electricity, and all modern conveniences; good school facilities for the children, a great big sand pile for the little ones, and all the pleasures of ocean, beach, and bay for every member of the family; ocean bathing every day in the year; canoes, rowboats, sailboats and launches ever at their disposal; a fine 18-hole golf course just across the bay at the Country Club; unexcelled climatic conditions morning, noon and night; and wonderful scenic pleasures all around.

Spend the Winter in Newport and Balboa The All Year Round Beach Resort Houses & Apartments for Everybody

Who wouldn't be glad to spend the winter at Newport-Balboa!

Close to Santa Ana and other Orange county towns, within easy reach of Los Angeles and the rest of Southern California, with good stage and P. E. car service, and connected with Orange county's wonderful good roads system, Newport-Balboa offer exceptional advantages for the winter resident.

When your friends look in vain for a house in Santa Ana, Orange, Anaheim or Fullerton, we ask that you refer them to Newport-Balboa while there are still plenty of houses to choose from. They will thank you for sending them to such a delightful spot, and you will be happy to have them near and in the knowledge that You and They are helping to make Orange County grow.

Isn't it better to have your friends near—in Orange county—rather than to let them seek homes elsewhere, farther from you and outside of Orange county?

Please send your friends to Newport-Balboa where, this early in the winter season, a house to suit their desires and means can be found.
